

UNIFEM and the ALOLA Foundation invite you to breakfast with

Kirsty Sword Gusmao

Founding director of the Alola Foundation, wife of the Prime Minister of Timor-Leste Xanana Gusmao

MC is the Hon. Maxine McKew MP, Parliamentary Secretary for Early Childhood Education and Child Care

Monday, 11 May 2009

7:00am for a 7:30am start

Southern Cross Club, Corinna Street, Woden

Ticket $50 pp; Student $30pp; Corporate table of 11 people $1000
(with the 11th person to join Kirsty Sword Gusmao at her table)

Register online at <http://www.abcon.biz/breakfast.htm>

Close off Date 6 May Enquiries 0416 244 501 or 0417 251 624

All proceeds from the breakfast will go to the Alola Foundation towards a residential wing at the Dili Hospital and UNIFEM's Timor-Leste Peace Scholarship

ALOLA foundation provides a range of vitally important hands-on support for the women and children of Timor-Leste. Working with community groups and individuals, the foundation aims to improve maternal and child health, create employment, promote human rights, strengthen community development, and improve the status of women. Alola is committed to developing strong women who will be the leaders of the future in Timor-Leste.

United Nations Development Fund for Women

Australian National Committee

UNIFEM is the United Nation's Development Fund for Women. It provides financial and technical assistance to innovative programs and strategies that promote women's human rights, political participation and economic security in more than 100 countries. UNIFEM Australia supports the work of UNIFEM internationally