

You are invited to hear Dodi Yuniar, Asia Justice and Rights (AJAR), speak about the work being done to reunite the Timorese children stolen during the Indonesian occupation of Timor-Leste.

'Nina and the Stolen Children of Timor-Leste'
AJAR's 25 min documentary will be screened

6pm, 5th October 2016, University of Melbourne, Old Arts' South Lecture Theatre (room 224)

Since 2013 AJAR, has been organising reunions of "stolen children" and a total of 30 have been reunited with their families. Timor-Leste's truth commission (CAVR), estimated that some 4,000 children were taken from their families and sent to Indonesia during the occupation. The CAVR made strong recommendations on finding and reuniting children separated during the conflict.

For further information contact: Alola Australia 0437 983 070