

BOOK LAUNCH

IN WOMEN'S WORDS:

VIOLENCE AND EVERYDAY LIFE DURING THE INDONESIAN OCCUPATION OF EAST TIMOR, 1975–1999

Hannah Loney

To be launched by Kirsty Sword Gusmão
Goodwill Ambassador for Education, Timor-Leste
Chair, Alola Foundation

Drawing primarily upon oral history interviews, this study presents a woman-centred history of the Indonesian occupation. It reveals the pervasiveness of violence – as well as its gendered and gendering dynamics – within the social and cultural “everyday” of life in occupied East Timor.

Hannah Loney is an Asian Studies Association of Australia (ASAA) Postdoctoral Fellow, hosted by the School of Historical and Philosophical Studies at the University of Melbourne
