TERMS OF REFERENCE
CONSULTANCY FOR THE GLOBAL COMPACT NETWORK VIETNAM (GCVN)

“A review of the social and environmental conditions of industries in Vietnam against the Global Compact Principles”

1. OVERVIEW OF PROJECT

   The Global Compact Network Vietnam (GCVN) is an alliance of companies, government, trade unions and non-governmental organisations. It exists to promote and improve the working and environmental conditions of Vietnam workers through the implementation of the Global Compact by companies. Its ultimate goal is be the national corporate social responsible centre of excellence; supporting companies identify, anticipate and diffuse the tensions between business and communities, business and the environment, business and the consumer, leading to sustainable businesses in a sustainable society.

   The GCVN was launched in 2007 to support the Government in the implementation of its Sustainable Development Strategy (Agenda 21). The project is implemented through the Vietnamese Chamber of Commerce (VCCI), Sustainable Business for Development Department (SB4D) with funding from UNDP.

   GCVN has three main deliverables:

   CSR promoted in Vietnam through the local Global Compact Network
   The intended output of the Global Compact Network Vietnam is to establish a pioneering alliance of companies, Government bodies, non-governmental organisations, academic institutions and media that work together to improve working and environmental conditions of businesses in Vietnam.

   CSR embedded in Vietnam through Training, Research and Curriculum Development
   The Global Compact Network Vietnam will act as a catalyst to improving the social responsibility of business through developing and disseminating best practice tools, brokering multi-stakeholder dialogue, providing advice, develop university curricula and Train of Trainer programmes to support the inclusion of CSR modules in the national education.

   Stakeholders engaged in partnerships within the Global Compact to advance the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) in a more efficient and strategic way
   The Global Compact Network Vietnam will develop strategic partnerships and support national initiatives that are committed to promoting private sector’s participation in development processes and improving the working and environmental conditions of workers in Vietnam.
In order to maximise the impact of its work in Vietnam the GCVN is looking to focus its work in key industrial sectors.

2. OBJECTIVES, SCOPE AND TASKS

GCVN is currently seeking a consultant/s to contribute to the design of its future activities. Many activities are already on-going in the field of CSR and the GCVN would like to make strategic choices in a coherent and documented way. With limited resources, the network is seeking to identify the industrial sectors in which it can have the most impact with respect to the 10 principles of the Global Compact, and avoid overlapping with existing activities.

The objective of the consultancy is to identify the main social and environmental problems of the key industrial sectors in Vietnam, in order to allow the Global Compact Network to choose rationally which sectors to focus on. Findings from the research will shape GCVN’s future programmes which aim to provide effective support to member companies and other stakeholders to improve the social and environmental standards of business in Vietnam.

The main tasks which the consultant/s will be tasked to do will include:

1. The mapping out of:
   - the most important social and environmental issues affecting each industrial sector in Vietnam. The Global Compact principles should be used as a framework for the mapping.
   - the most important initiatives and activities supported by companies and organisations at a government, factory, worker and civil society level, regarding the 4 areas of the Global Compact.

2. Based on the above findings the consultant/s are asked to develop a robust and justified score card, which ranks the most important social and environmental risks of each industrial sector against the GCVN’s ability to influence them. Data included in the formation of the score card should include:
   - magnitude of the social and environmental problem in each industrial sector
   - the presence of ongoing remediation actions, if any
   - GCVN’s ability to add-value and not duplicate existing efforts.
   - GCVN’s potential ability to influence the sector - this will be dependent on many issues including whether the sector is state owned, has foreign or domestic investors, predominately used for the domestic market or exported, etc.

   Data from the score card will be used to prioritise GCVN’s future work streams and should ideally be also presented in visual format.

   The research findings will also act as a baseline survey to be used in assessing the impact of the project.

3. EXPECTED DELIVERABLES

   The consultant/s will be expected to:
   - Provide weekly progress updates to GCVN
   - Prepare a final report which provides a:
     - summary of findings and recommendations
     - detailed overview of the social and environmental issues of the industrial sectors of Vietnam and the justification
     - score card for each industrial sector rating its social and environmental standards and GCVN’s ability to improve its performance, duly justified
   - Conduct a workshop (conclusion meeting) for the members of the GCVN team.

4. INDICATIVE TIMESCALE

The consultancy is expected to start by the end of July and completed by mid-October 2009.

5. MANAGEMENT ARRANGEMENTS

The consultant and/or firm will be contracted directly by the Vietnam Chamber of Commerce and Industry (VCCI) and will report to the Partnership/Research Specialist at the project, with input from the Project Manager and Senior Technical Advisor of the GCVN.

6. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE OF THE TEAM

   -> Academic background

   Masters Degree in business, corporate responsibility and/or a related field

   A research degree (MPhil or PhD) would be preferable

   -> Skills and experience

   Minimum 5 years of professional experience - including at least two in managing responsible businesses and/or CSR related programmes;

   Previous involvement in CSR programmes in Vietnam would be an advantage

   Fluency in English (essential) and an understanding of Vietnamese (an advantage)

   GCVN is committed to working with local resources; The team should comprise at least one international and one national researchers.

8. SUPPORT PROVIDED

The consultants can expect support and guidance from the GCVN team during the assignment.
