Introduction

It is certainly encouraging to see the greater awareness of, and interest in REDD+. We see this in the number of countries that continue to express their interest to join the UN-REDD Programme and the on-going progress with the UNFCCC negotiations. These are encouraging developments. And this month, the UN-REDD Programme is pleased to welcome yet another group of countries as official partners of the Programme and observers to its Policy Board. Read more...

News

5 New Countries Join the UN-REDD Programme

The UN-REDD Programme welcomes Bangladesh, Bhutan, Central African Republic, Colombia, and Guatemala as new partners to the Programme. Read full article...

UN-REDD in Latin America

The UN-REDD Programme's pilot and partner countries in Latin America and the Caribbean make important progress in their REDD+ readiness efforts. Read full article...

New Resources for REDD+ Negotiators

The Foundation for International Environmental Law and Development (FIELD) will develop resources, including updates on the UN-REDD Programme, to help developing country negotiators working on REDD+ in the lead-up to COP-16 in December. Read full article...

Subscribe to UN-REDD’s New RSS Feed

All the latest UN-REDD Programme news and information is now easy to follow by subscribing to the Programme's new RSS feed. Read full article...

Reports & Analysis

Investing in Good Governance for REDD+

The UN-REDD Programme held a governance side event at the Bonn Climate Talks in August, where participants discussed existing national REDD+ governance initiatives and explored ways to enhance country ownership of REDD+ governance through multi-stakeholder approaches. Read full article...

Find out more about the UN-REDD Programme here