

Pacific Islands Field School

presents...

A Screening of Keepers of the Flame

28 October 2014
6:30-8:30 PM

Hedley Bull,
Theatre 1

Look for our event on Facebook or contact Richard at u5201684@anu.edu.au

Admission is free and open to the public but donations are welcomed and encouraged.

*Throughout November and December, 16
students from across the Australian National University will be taking part the Pacific Islands Field School to Hawai'i.
During their time away
students will be engaging with local community groups and University of Hawai'i students to gain a deeper understanding of the Pacific.*

*Join the students for their fundraiser, a screening of "The Keepers of the Flames"
in Hedley Bull Lecture Theatre 1, followed by a* discussion chaired by Dr Katerina Teaiwa.

*"Keepers of the Flame: The Cultural Legacy of Three Hawaiian Women is a tribute to three Hawaiian women whose lives spanned the 19th and 20th centuries: Hawaiian historian and author, Mary Kawena Pukui; dancer and
chanter, 'Iolani Luahine;
and kumu hula and teacher, Edith Kanakalo. This story reveals the power of their commitment to Hawaiian culture and values and the ways their influence is still felt today."*