

One Day Symposium:
A Southern war:
Australia, the Pacific and WWI.

Date: Friday 28 Nov 2014; 9.30am – 5.30pm
Venue: Theatre 2.02, Sir Roland Wilson Building (120),
Australian National University
Host: University of Sydney, Australian National University
Convenor: Dr Christine Winter, REGS, University of Sydney
Dr Yasuko Kobayashi, College of Asia and the Pacific, ANU

Sponsored by Race and Ethnicity in the Global South
Christine Winter (FT130101715) & Warwick Anderson (FL110100243)

This is a free event. For catering purposes please RSVP by 24 November
Yasuko.Kobayashi@anu.edu.au

Programme

- 9.30am Welcome Note
Christine Winter, University of Sydney
- 9.40am Christine Liava'a, NZ Society of Genealogists
An overview of the Pacific Region and World War I
Geoffrey Gray, Australian National University
Indigenous peoples of the South Pacific and WWI - A lack of recognition and commemoration?
- 11.00am Morning tea
- 11.15pm Kylie Molonie, Australian National University
WWI in the Pacific – PMB Collections and resources
Barry Craig, South Australian Museum
'tinker, tailor, soldier, sailor': the World War One military collections from German New Guinea in the South Australian Museum
- 12.30pm Lunch
- Book Launches:
Frank Bongiorno, Australian National University:
Hell-Bent. Australia's leap into the Great War, by Douglas Newton
Peter Stanley, University of New South Wales, Canberra:
War Trophies or Curios, by Barry Craig, Ron Vanderwal and Christine Winter
- 2.00pm Douglas Newton, University of Western Sydney
"A vigorous offence": Australian and Imperial planning for a Pacific war, 1902-1914
Christine Winter, University of Sydney
Australia's First War Theatre: The intertwining of 'war trophies' and 'native curios'
- 3.30pm Afternoon tea
- 3.45pm Danton Leary, Australian National University
Japan and the Great War: Occupation and Accommodation in the Pacific
Patricia O'Brien, Australian National University
'New Zealand and Samoa: Colonial Wars and the Great War in the Pacific'
- 5.30pm Concluding remarks & debate
Joan Beaumont, Australian National University